republished:-

No 9610 Sergeant J. Robins, 5th (Service) Battalion, The Wiltshire Regiment, was convicted by a Field General Court Martial on 6th December 1915 on the following charge:-

"Disobeying in such a manner as to show wilful defiance of authority a lawful command given personally by his superior officer in the execution of his office."

This non-commissioned officer when personally ordered by his Company Officer to accompany him on a patrol - said he would not wed enough to do so.

He was medically inspected and found fit for duty. His Company ~~commander~~ officer then again gave him the order, but the accused refused to obey.

The Court sentenced the accused to death by being shot and this sentence having been confirmed by the Commander-in-Chief-

Salutes - General Routine Order No 413 by 940 General Sir C C Munro K.C.B. dated 27/12/15 is republished.:-
'The Commander-in-Chief views with great displeasure the slackness displayed by the troops in the matter of Salutes saluting Officers. 940 } An impression appears to have been formed that, on active service, the paying of compliments is suspended. This is erroneous. He directs that it be explained by commanding Officers to their men, that the soldier, in failing to salute an officer, slight his Majesty the King's Commission and the authority conferred by that Commission.

The neglect or carelessness in saluting is an act showing lack of discipline and will be dealt with severely. This Order is to be read on three successive parades.

Coy Commanders please note.
