Stores must not be removed from School Huts except for Parade and a receipt will be obtained from the Officer or N.C.O. who draws them from the Specialist Officer concerned or his Storeman. They will also be responsible that the Stores are returned on the same day immediately after parade.

Any breach of this order will be immediately reported by the Specialist Officer to the Assistant Adjutant who will at once inform the Quartermaster.

ROUTINE ORDER NO. 528

J Y

LT COL. J. ALSTAD, DSO. CO. LEADING 2nd TRAINING BATTALION AIF.

DUTIES

1. FIELD OFFICER FOR 26.11.17	Capt. HALLAM, (IC) .7.
ORDERLY OFFICER. 26.11.17	Lieut. STALL, F.J.
DUTY COMPANY.	"B" COMPANY.
NEXT FOR DUTY.
ORDERLY OFFICER.	Lieut. LAMBERTON G.A.
OFFICER OF SIDE SQUAD	Lieut. POWER, F.D'a.
DUTY COMPANY.	"C" COMPANY.

Duty Company will furnish duties as detailed by the Adjutant.

MIT INSPECTION.

2. Administrative Company Commanders will arrange a time on the day preceding Mit Inspection which is laid down in syllabus in order that they will be enabled to carry out the following instructions.

Deficiencies of Kit come under two categories viz:-

- (a) Worn Out.
- (b) Shortages.

As regards (a) the following procedure will be adopted. Company Commanders are responsible that only articles which are really unserviceable through fair wear and tear are returned to their Company Quartermaster Sergeant who will be present at the inspection. The latter will hand same to the Quartermaster or the R.Q.M.S. labelled with the soldier's Regimental number, Rank, Name, Service Battalion.

It must be borne in mind by Coy. Commanders that any articles which have been cut or altered from regulation pattern do not come under this category, as also do articles of clothing that can be reasonably repaired. A dirty article of clothing is not unserviceable unless legitimately worn out through actual training.

Category (b) - SHORTAGES. These will be noted and lists prepared and furnished to the Quartermaster immediately after the inspection. The following is the pro forma to be used in preparing these lists :-

No.	Rank	Name	Service Unit.	Articles to be issued
				(a)	(b)	(c)
				As on first issue - Free.	On re-payment.	Loss to be investigated by Bd. of Enquiry.

As regards (a) Coy. Commanders will bear in mind that unless there is direct evidence that the soldier is entitled to a first issue free it is useless putting articles in this column.

As regards (b) it must be remembered that articles lost or stolen must be paid for by the individual concerned.

KIT
INSPECTION

In cases of issue on repayment it is imperative that the acquittance roll bear the real unit of the man concerned. For instance a man of 7th Battalion attached to "A" Coy. would appear on acquittance rolls as 17th BATTN. whereas a man transferred to this Battalion would appear as 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th, 10th, 11th BATTN. A separate Acquittance roll must be made for each Unit. Any neglect of above will lead to very serious complications in pay accounts of those concerned.

As regards (c) if there is any doubt as to the fairness of whether the cost of the articles should be borne by the Public or the individual soldier, articles should be shown in this column, when a Regimental Board of Enquiry will be assembled to enquire into the matter.
