	1st to 8th.		3rd. Troop marched out to join 3rd. Brigade at ZAG-A-ZIG on 30th. of last month and became engaged in usual engineering work as required by the brigade. Technical gear for them was drawn at Kantara from Ordnance and taken by rail to Zag-a-zig. Timber and material for camp work was drawn from R.E. Park at that town. Work has consisted mainly in erecting troughs, cookhouses & latrines. Swamps have also been drained by them. Remainder of Squadron at Moascar carrying out necessary camp work and doing what work is required in Divisional Camp. Four men to Faied Fishing Post for Duty.
	9th. to 16th.		3rd. Troop with 3rd. Brigade at Zag-a-zig. Erecting ablution areas and Guard Shelters and generally carrying out work required by Brigade. Remainder of Squadron at Moascar doing what work is possible for the Divisional Troops remaining at Moascar. Difficulty has been experienced in obtaining material from R.Es. and the repair of Mess-sheds and other buildings in the camp has not been satisfactory. The scheme previously submitted for the erection of shower baths has not yet been approved by L.of C. Two more men to Faied Fishing Post. Squadron maintaining London Bridge across Sweetwater Canal.
	17th. to 23rd.		During the week all men whose leave to the U.K. has been approved, have marched out to "A" Details to await embarkation. 3rd. Troop with their Brigade at Zag-a-zig carrying out necessary work. Erecting wooden troughs and continuing erection of ablution areas etc. Squadron at Moascar doing necessary work. 	XXXXX XXXXX 24th. to 30th.		During the week no work of special importance has been carried out. 3rd. Troop are still with their Brigade, but have practically finished any engineering work required in the camp at Zag-a-zig. The requirements of other Regiments attached to the 3rd. Brigade have also been attended to by this Troop. The remainder of the Squadron at Moascar have carried out minor works for the Australian troops camped here but shortage of material especially Matting has limited our work. Cookhouses have been repaired as far as possible. Repairs have been made xxxx during the month to the Camp Canteen and Kitchen. The remainder of the men for U.K. leave have marched out to "A" Details. Guards as asked for by Division for various purposes have been supplied during the month. Small leave parties have been sent away to Jerusalem. Camp routine work with physical exercises and swimming parties have been continued throughout.
