FOURTH AUSTRALIAN DIVISION.

Headquarters,
11th December, 1918.

GENERAL STAFF CIRCULAR NO. 80.

T R A I N I N G .

1. As the hours of daylight are limited the Divisional Commander desires Brigade and Unit Commanders to take the necessary action to ensure that the time at the disposal of the troops for training is carefully organised. The training of the troops divides itself into three main forms of activity, viz.:-

- (a) Military training.
- (b) Educational and Vocational Training.
- (c) Recreational Training.

2. The Divisional Commander desires to emphasise the necessity of maintaining the military standard of efficiency of all units at the highest pitch and a proportion of the time must be devoted to purely military training which will include musketry. There must be at least one parade with arms daily (Sundays excepted). All troops going to Educational or Vocational Training should do so under the conditions of parade. They must fall in and be inspected at least once in the day before moving off.

3. Educational and Recreational Training is being controlled by a series of Instructions which are being issued from time to time by this Office and the Divisional Education Officer. Every effort will be made to explain the Education Scheme and its advantages to the troops. The essential thing is to organise the time of the men that they are kept fully occupied with useful work.

4. A programme of work will be forwarded by Infantry Brigades, Artillery and Divisional Units for the ensuing fortnight's work. This will reach Divisional Headquarters by 6 p.m. on the FRIDAY prior to the period which the programme covers. The first of these series will be forwarded for the period ending on the 23th inst. and will reach Divisional Headquarters by 6 p.m. 14th inst.

5. Long tabulated statements showing the work in detail are not required. The general nature of the training and the time allotted to it will ordinarily be sufficient. In any case, however, where there are full parades of units or formations of not less than a whole battalion or Artillery Brigade the nature of the parade should be

Information and it

given with the time and location. This does not apply to a normal daily assembly but it applies to all field exercises, ceremonial parades and recreational exercises.

In submitting these programmes Formation and Unit Commanders will please notify Divisional Headquarters of any proposed events of special interest (Sports Meetings, Church Parades, etc.) in order that the Corps Commander may arrange to attend where possible.

6. The Prince of Wales will visit the Australian Corps Area for a period of three weeks, commencing about 17th inst. Headquarters will be notified of any interesting events which it is proposed to hold so that, where possible, the Prince may attend. During this period Units will be asked to carry out a certain number of ceremonial parades.
