COMMONWEALTH OF AUSTRALIA?

DEPARTMENT OF DEFENCE?

Office of the A.I. Force

Melbourne, 29th August 1914.

The Minister,

Before leaving Australia I recommend that a gradyation list of Officers in the Australian Imperial Force be issued and also that Questions affecting command, rank and precedence of Officers, whether appointed before embarkation or subsequently, be determined in accordance with the following rules:—

1. The rank to which Officers are appointed or promoted in the Australian Imperial Force shall be substantive rank unless otherwise expressly stated.
2. Officers holding higher rank in the Commonwealth Military Forces than their substantive rank in the Australian Imperial Force shall retain the higher rank as Honorary rank.
3. On appointment, and until promoted in the Australian Imperial Force—
 - (a) Officers on the Active List of the Regular Army and Commonwealth Military Forces shall rank according to their dates of appointment in that rank in the Regular Army and the Commonwealth Military Forces respectively, unless otherwise expressly stated.
 - (b) Officers on the Reserve of Officers shall take rank and precedence in the Australian Imperial Force below all officers of the same rank as that to which they are appointed, of the Active List of the Regular Army and the Commonwealth Military Forces, and amongst themselves according to the dates of their appointments to their respective ranks in the Active Forces.
 - (c) Retired Officers and others shall take rank and precedence in the Australian Imperial Force according to the dates of appointment in the Australian Imperial Force but below other officers of the same rank.
 - (d) Provided that Officers appointed to the command of Brigades, regiments, Battalions, and other Units in the Australian Imperial Force, shall exercise command over any other Officers serving therein, irrespective of the date of their appointments.
