VIGNACOURT.	1.		Moved across from ALBERT, leaving half the staff behind as arranged. Took over a good store from 1 st Australian Division (Cinema Hall).	ESL
	2/7.		Arranged to make deliveries by lorries each morning to FLESSELLS and BAINVILLE for the 6 th and 5 th Brigades (Infantry) and the 7 th Brigade to lift their stores from dump as they were quite handy. Have been having great trouble with boots. A certain style of boots with a bad tongue has been received largely lately, and the General has condemned them, & complained to Corps. They are certainly of very little use in the wet, as the water simply runs in between the tongue & upper.	ESL
	8.		Handed over to 14 th Corps at ALBERT 4836 pairs Turn Boots High.	ESL
"	12.		W.O. NEWELL transferred to 27 th Battalion to be appointed Hon. Lieut. & P.M.	ESL
"	13.		Received first consignment of Chaffcutters, but they appear to me to be very much on the large size.	ESL

ALBERT	31.		clothing on examination is found to be entirely different. A few days ago I received some very second hand jackets S.D. & among them was one light blue colour. Yesterday among the Greatcoats received was one bale of Greatcoats for German prisoners. Such things as this upset all arrangements this end, & cause complaints from units that they are unable to get clothing they ask for in a reasonable time.	G.L.
