	11/18		The signing of the Armistice was celebrated in Right, good Australian fashion. Work was carried on as well as was possible under the circumstances, but our output has suffered somewhat. Fortunately we are carrying a Reserve so we shall be able to meet demands.
Barkness North Raven	11/18		The Celebrations still continue, it has been impossible to do very much with the men. The required number of patterns have been produced after a fashion but on the whole the day has been a very trying one indeed. We have had great difficulty in obtaining Railway trucks from the French Railway people. They too have been celebrating.
	13/11/18		Regimental Routine is resumed from Reveille today & Celebrations have ceased in general, although there are still a few of the men on the loose end.
	25/11/18		Capt Pyc 5 th Bakery & 4 th Cameron. 22 A.D.S. marched out for 6 months furlough to Australia.

Baker's Barracks	29 1/18		The work has been very strenuous during the past few days. There is a general tendency on the part of the men to relax effort & numbers are parading sick for very trivial reasons ostensibly to avoid work. This attitude is regrettable & makes it extremely difficult to carry out
	30 1/18		The requirements for the troops still need their daily bread tonight's doughmakers downed tools & would not start work because two of their number reported sick at the last minute. Subsequently work was resumed but not until two men of the day shift offered to do the emergency turns. These two men had been working during the day too.
