AUSTRALIAN COMFORTS FUND

VICTORIAN DIVISION

A.C.F. HOUSE,
109 EXHIBITION ST.,
MELBOURNE

20th August, 1943.

Dear Sir,

One of the most important functions of the Australian Comforts Fund at present, is to forward continuous supplies of reading matter to our Service men and women at Operational Stations. Every type of book or magazine is urgently required.

With the object of overcoming the shortage, a book appeal is to hold during the week September 13th to 18th when all sections of the community will be asked to forward to the A.C.F. all available literature.

In connection with this appeal we earnestly seek your support and suggest that you can help in this effort by agreeing to place receptacles for the collection of books near or in the entrance to your building. In addition, we would be most appreciative if during the next few weeks you would advise your staff re the appeal and ask them and their respective staffs to co-operate during the period stated above. Such support will ensure a very satisfactory response to our appeal.

Trusting that you will help us in the manner requested.

Yours faithfully,

H.H. KIRCHN,

Honorary Administrator.
