COMMANDERS DIARIES INSTRUCTIONS

AIM

1. The aim of a Commanders Diary is to provide data on which to base future improvements in Army training, equipment, organization and administration, and to furnish historians with a record of the activities of units and formations in operational and non-operational periods in peace and in war.

GENERAL

2. Entries are to be made daily on AF C 2118 (Adapted) each entry being initialled by the officer detailed to keep it.
3. Commanders Diaries will conform with the rules for drafting orders given in "Staff Duties (Australia)", Chapter 2, Section 12.

RESPONSIBILITY

During Non-operational Periods

4. A Commanders Diary is to be compiled by commanders of all formations.

During Operational Periods (1)

5. A Commanders Diary is to be compiled in duplicate by:
 - a. Commanders of all formations.
 - b. Each branch of the staff at formation headquarters commanded by a brigadier or above.
 - c. Heads of services not below the rank of lieutenant colonel.
 - d. Personal staffs and officers holding special appointments.
 - e. Unit commanders.
 - f. Commanders of a detachment of a unit when so ordered.

COMPILATION

6. Both original and duplicate copies are to consist of:
 - a. Cover (AF C 2119) (Adapted).
 - b. Index as printed on cover.
 - c. Narrative (AF C 2118) (Adapted).
 - d. Annexes as shown in the Index.
7. All details of the unit or formation (if a detachment is concerned, the name of the parent unit), period covered and enclosure numbers of the annexes are to be shown on the cover. If there has been a change of command since the last report, the date of assumption by the new commanding officer is to be included.
8. The annexes are to be assembled in the groups shown on the cover. If there are no enclosures for an annex NIL will be entered on the cover. If additional annexes are convenient for a particular headquarters, starting at B.

the annexes, but need not give a precis of any of them.

DISPOSAL

13. Original Commander's Diary. This is to be forwarded monthly, unless otherwise ordered, by the seventh day of the succeeding month direct to AHQ.

14. Duplicate Commander's Diary. This must be clearly marked as a duplicate. It is to be sent separately from the original to AHQ one month after the original has been despatched but not before the former has been acknowledged.

15. When overseas, both copies of diaries are to be sent through the Army Records organization in the overseas theatre but at different times.

16. TOP SECRET Supplementary Diaries.

a. The documents referred to in Paragraph 9 together with a list of them made out on AF C 2118 (Adapted) must be placed in separate cover (AF C 2119) (Adapted). All details must be filled in and the cover clearly marked in red: "ANNEX Z — OFFICER ONLY". It may be convenient to group the papers by appendices.

b. Supplementary diaries must be forwarded under the normal rules for TOP SECRET correspondence, to AHQ. The inner envelope must be plainly marked:

TOP SECRET

ANNEX Z to

Commanders Diary of.....(Formation or Unit)

From.....to..... (Dates)

c. The duplicate supplementary diaries must be despatched as shown in Paragraph 14 as soon as receipt of the original has been acknowledged.

COMPILED

6. Both original and duplicate copies are to consist of:

- Cover (AF C 2119) (Adapted).
- Index as printed on cover.
- Narrative (AF C 2118) (Adapted).
- Annexes as shown in the index.

7. All details of the unit or formation (if a detachment is concerned, the name of the parent unit) covered and enclosure numbers of the annexes are to be shown on the cover. If there has been a change of command since the last report, the date of assumption by the new commanding officer is to be shown.

8. The annexes are to be assembled in the groups shown on the cover. If there are no annexes, the word "no annex NIL" will be entered on the cover. If additional annexes are considered for a particular report, they are to be numbered starting at 1.

9. For operations reports Annex "Z", "TOP SECRET" is to be prepared and submitted with the diary.

ITEMS

10. As well as the narrative, the diary is to contain:

- Details of the unit or formation.
- Details of the fighting, including any movements, positions, and losses.
- Details of the weather, terrain, and other factors.

11. The diary is to be submitted to the commanding officer of the unit or formation, who is to sign it and forward it to the appropriate authority.

12. The diary is to be kept in a secure place and is to be destroyed when it is no longer required.

13. The diary is to be kept in a secure place and is to be destroyed when it is no longer required.

This form will be enclosed with the annexes in AF C 2119. If this is not available the cover will be prepared in manuscript.

DIRECTIVE TO OFFICER COMMANDING 2 FIELD TROOP RAE
SUB-UNIT OF 11 FIELD SQUADRON RE, 28 COMMWEL INF BDE GP
WHEN EMPLOYED ON ENGINEER TASKS IN THAILAND

General

1. Australia has agreed to the employment of 2 Field Troop RAE on the engineer construction task known as "Operation Crown".

Command

2. Whilst so employed 2 Field Troop RAE will remain under command of the Officer Commanding 11 Field Squadron RE.
3. Your formation commander will continue to be the Commander 28 Commonwealth Infantry Brigade.

National Responsibilities

4. You are responsible to Commander Australia Army Force FARELF for the safety and well-being of your command and for matters of peculiarly Australian administration.
5. Should you at any time consider that the task which you are given, or a situation develops which you consider would endanger the national interest of Australia, or be likely to imperil your command or any part of it, you are to report the situation at once to the Commander Australia Army Force, FARELF. At the same time you are to inform your Officer Commanding of your action and the reasons for doing so.
6. You are empowered to communicate directly with Headquarters Australian Army Force FARELF on National matters, at the same time keeping your squadron commander informed of your actions.

Other Employment

7. Australian personnel under your command are not to be used in aid of the civil power in civil disturbances, nor for any purpose outside the express terms of paragraphs 1 above and 8 and 9 below, without prior consent of the Commander Australian Army Force FARELF. Such authorisation will be requested and confirmed through your normal British chain of command.
8. Should exceptional circumstances prevent your compliance with the procedure of paragraph 7 above, you are to act on your own initiative and inform the Commander Australian Army Force FARELF as soon as possible.
9. In the event of civil disturbances, all Australian Army personnel are to take appropriate measures to safeguard themselves and the government property entrusted to their care.

Administration

10. You are to operate in accordance with AHQ Administrative Instruction 6/64 as amended. In addition, a number of administrative notes are included as Annex 'A' to this directive for your guidance.

Reports

11. You are to maintain a Commander's Diary in accordance with "Staff Duties in the Field 1962".
12. In addition, you are to submit a report not less frequently than monthly, to cover such aspects of G, AG, and QMG matters which have affected your command.

AG ASPECTS

Leave

1. Applications for leave involving movement outside THAILAND are to be forwarded to HQ AAF FARELF for approval.

Compensation

2. Troops engaged in Operation Crown are not covered by the Repatriation (Special Overseas Service) Act. This particularly effects Report of an Injury or Illness (D11) and the requirement to lodge claims for compensation when applicable.

Allowances

3. These are still under consideration by AHQ CANBERRA and will be notified separately.

Pay

4. 2 Fd Tp is responsible for maintaining its own paybooks and for paying members. Pay advances are to be drawn from the UK Imprest Holder and adjusted with him after pay has been issued.

Legal

5. The following points should be noted:-
 - a. Members remain at the disposal of UK authorities and are under UK military law.
 - b. Vehicle accidents on duty and other on duty incidents should be investigated and treated in the same manner as for service in MALAYSIA, including advice to UK Claims Commission Far East.
 - c. Off duty incidents when a Thai person or property is involved should be treated with the utmost care, and every possible attempt made to secure the immediate release of Aust personnel from Thai custody. Permission should be sought from the senior Thai policeman in the area to try the offence as a military matter. At least two members (Aust) should be present at any negotiations with the Thai police.
 - d. Troops should be warned that UK troops on Op Crown have had more severe penalties awarded for minor offences than has been the case in MALAYSIA.
 - e. Troops proceeding on leave or duty to other parts of THAILAND should be advised of the address and phone number of the Services Attache Australian and UK Embassies, BANGKOK, so that assistance can be requested if necessary. Particulars are:-

AUSTRALIAN MILITARY FORCES

DIRECTIVE

TO

OFFICER COMMANDING 21. CONSTRUCTION SQUADRON RAE

Introduction

1. At the request of the Government of Malaysia, the Government of Australia has agreed to provide an army engineer construction force for duty in the Borneo States of Eastern Malaysia. The Force has been assigned to the British Commonwealth Far East Strategic Reserve for the purpose.
2. Overall control of operations in the Borneo States, as elsewhere in Malaysia, is the responsibility of the National Operations Committee in accordance with policy defined by the Malaysian National Defence Council.

Role

3. Your role is to carry out engineer construction tasks as laid down by your formation commander.

Composition of Force

4. Your force will consist of:
 - a. 21 Const Sqn RAE, Establishment IV/245/3 (TE) refers, with under command:
 - (1) 570 Sig Tp (Const Sqn BCFESR), Establishment VII/290/1 (TE) refers.
 - (2) 21 Const Sqn Independent Wksp RAEME, Establishment III/473/1 (TE) refers.
 - b. Such other personnel, units or sub-units which from time to time may be allotted to, or attached for duty with, your force.

Channel of Command

5. You are under the command of the Commander in Chief, Far East, for allotment to the British Land Forces, Borneo, for operations.
6. The employment of your force shall be directed by Commander, British Land Forces Borneo, or as delegated by him.
7. Should you, at any time, consider that the task which you are given or a situation develops which you consider would endanger the national interest of Australia or be likely to imperil unduly your command or any part of it, you are to report the situation at once to the Commander, Australian Army Force, FARELF. At the same time, you are to inform your formation commander of your action and the reasons for doing so.

Administration

8. You are to communicate directly to Headquarters, Australian Army Force, FARELF, Singapore, on matters of purely Australian domestic administration.
9. In matters of other administration, you are to operate in accordance with HQ Central Brigade Administrative Instruction No 18 as amended, or by any document produced to supersede that Administrative Instruction.

/Discipline

Discipline

10. You are the Commanding Officer for the purposes of discipline for all ranks under your command and you have been appointed by the Adjutant General under Australian Military Regulation 66(5) as Commanding Officer for any other Australian members attached to, serving with or proceeding to your force.

11. Superior authorities in Borneo for discipline, depending upon your allocation, are Commander, Headquarters 17th Division/Land Forces BORNEO, and Commander, Central Brigade Area, British Forces BORNEO. Both Commanders have a court martial delegation under Table A Appendix IV to AMR&O, except that sentences involving death, cashiering, dismissal, discharge with ignominy from Her Majesty's service or discharge from the Defence Force of the Commonwealth of Australia will be referred to AHQ for confirmation.

Other Employment

12. Your force is not to be used in a role other than that specified in paragraph 3, without the prior consent of the Australian Government. Any requests which conflict with this shall be notified to Commander, Australian Army Force, FARELF, immediately they are received; should however exceptional circumstances arise where time does not permit this action, you are to act on your own initiative and inform the Commander Australian Army Force, FARELF, as soon as possible.

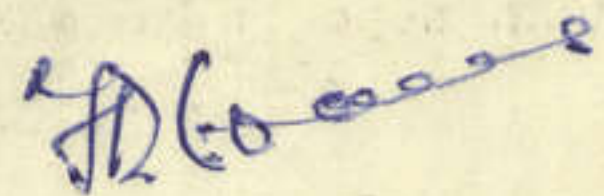

13. Your force is not to be used in aid of the civil power in civil disturbances without a direct order from Commander, Australian Army Force, FARELF.

14. All Australian Army personnel are to take the appropriate measures at all times to safeguard themselves and the Government property entrusted in their care.

Reports

15. You are to maintain a Commander's Diary in accordance with Staff Duties in the Field 1962, and forward it to Army Headquarters, CANBERRA.

16. You are to submit combined GS, AG and QMG reports not less frequently than monthly to Headquarters, Australian Army Force, FARELF, to arrive by the first day of the succeeding month to that under report.

DIRECTIVE

TO

OFFICER COMMANDING 2nd AUSTRALIAN SPECIAL AIR SERVICE SQUADRON

Introduction

1. The Government of Australia has agreed to provide a second Special Air Service squadron to carry out appropriate military tasks in the defence of the Borneo States of Malaysia in rotation with British units.
2. Overall control of operations for the defence of Malaysia, including the Borneo States, is the responsibility of the National Operations Committee in accordance with policy defined by the Malaysian National Defence Council.

Employment

3. Your employment shall be as directed by the Commander in Chief, Far East, or by his nominated subordinate commander. When you are on operations in Malaysia your roles will include the following :
 - a. Reporting of enemy infiltration and border patrols.
 - b. Collection of intelligence and topographical information.
 - c. Winning the "hearts and minds" of the indigenous peoples.
 - d. Harassing the enemy.
4. Should you, at any time, consider that the task which you are given or a situation develops which you consider would endanger the national interest of Australia or be likely to imperil unduly your command or any part of it, you are to report the situation at once to the Commander, Australian Army Force, FARELF. At the same time, you are to inform your formation commander of your action and the reasons for doing so.

Composition of Force

5. Your force consists of :

/Channel

Channel of Command

6. Your force forms part of Australian Army Force FARELF.
7. On arrival in Singapore you are under command of the Commander-in-Chief, Far East, as part of the Strategic Reserve, for subsequent allotment. The Commander-in-Chief, Far East, may delegate his authority to one of his subordinate commanders.

Administration

8. You are to communicate direct to Headquarters, Australian Army Force, FARELF, Singapore on matters of purely Australian administration.
9. In matters of other administration you are to operate in accordance with Headquarters FARELF Administrative Instructions Nos. 3 and 4, AHQ Administrative Instruction No 6/64 and local formation instructions.

Discipline

10. You are the Commanding Officer for the purposes of discipline for all ranks under your command and you have been appointed by the Adjutant General under Australian Military Regulation 66 (5) as Commanding Officer for any other Australian members attached to, serving with or proceeding to ... your force. A copy of the instrument is attached.
11. Your superior authority for purposes of discipline depending upon your allocation is :

- a. In East Malaysia - Director of Borneo Operations/Commander and Brunei Land Forces Borneo.
- b. In Singapore - Commander, Singapore Area.
- c. In Malaya - Commander, 17 Division/Malaya District.

Other Employment

12. Australian personnel are not to be used in aid of the civil power in civil disturbances. Should civil disturbances occur, all Australian Army personnel are to take appropriate measures to safeguard themselves and the governmental property entrusted to their care. Australian Army personnel may be used to protect dependants of Australian, United Kingdom and New Zealand forces in an emergency.
13. The restriction imposed in paragraph 12 above does not prevent, subject to operational commitments, the use of Australian Army personnel in providing assistance to civil authorities of the Federation of Malaysia in the event of flood or other natural disasters if requested by the Malaysian Authorities. You are to advise Commander, Australian Army Force FARELF of all assistance requested or given. Agreement to provide such assistance does not over-ride the reservations on aid to the civil power in civil disturbances stated in paragraph 12 including civil disturbances such as looting and rioting which would be a concomitant of a national disaster.

Reports

14. You are to maintain a Commander's Diary in accordance with Staff Duties in the Field 1962, and forward it to Army Headquarters, Canberra, via HQ AAF FARELF.

15. You are to submit ~~weekly~~ and monthly reports to Headquarters Australian Army Force, FARELF, concerning GS, AG and QMG matters. In addition an operational report on the week's activities should be rendered by the Friday of the week under report.
