A.I.F. 11 BURNETT, T. A2576

D/W Feb. 27th 1917.

Burnett was a Machine gunner in C.Coy. He was in 8th Reinforcements and his number would be in the 254 hundreds. He was wounded in the bombardment before we attacked - at Le Barque, between it and Yarrow Bank. Sergt. Walker of C.Coy told me that he was with the carrying party that took him out and that he died on the way to the D/S. The 3rd Bde D/S or Field Ambulance it would be, I think. I know nothing of his burial, but he would be buried round about there. There is no regular cemetery there.
