K 10-5-15 Arthur Victoria

I saw him killed by a bomb when in the line at Queen's Post (Gallipoli) about the 11th of May, 1915.

It was about 11.30 a.m. and he died a few minutes after being wounded. He was buried about 20ft. behind the main line with about 24 others in a common grave. This grave was afterwards marked with the particulars of the men interred therein. He was about 5' 4", slight build, fair hair. He came over with the original 15th Bn. He was an Englishman by birth. His name was Arthur and belonged to No 3 Section, "B" Coy.
