1645 Private
John Herbert Dwyer

54th Battalion

0980101J

54th Battn. NO ENQUIRY DWYER
A.I.F. H. 1545

"Killed 25-4-18"

Dwyer was buried at Vignacourt at the Cemetery attached to 8th A.C.C.S., and an ordinary wooden Cross is erected, no Battn. Cross up yet. I saw his grave and made a note of it. I don't know where he came from or the nature of casualty. Grave No. is D.20.

Searchers Note:-
Book inspected and above details and date of death appear. After seeing my note of C.List 7-5-18 showing J.H.Dwyer 1645 D/W 61st C.C.S. 25-4-18, I saw Stansfield again and he is certain of initials and number on the grave and stated that he nailed his collar badge (Rising Sun) on the grave. Asked how he knew it was 8th A.C.C.S., his book shows this, Stansfield stated it was on a board on Railway line, the Cemetery being just over the line from the C.C.S.
