Dear Pte. Fowler,

Very many thanks for your letter in answer to our enquiry concerning 5047 W.V. BAGLEY, 11th Batt. A.I.F.

and for the trouble you have taken to obtain information for us.

We have also received this name on an official List of Prisoners in Germany and the Prisoners'Department of the Australian Red Cross immediately started to send him food parcels to Limburg where he was interned.

We are pleased to learn that you had the good fortune to escape being taken prisoner on that same date.

With all good wishes,

Yours faithfully,
