WOUNDED

Re 5979, Pte R. Bright 37th Battn., A.I.F., this man was admitted to this Hospital on the 29th March with wounds to the right leg and wrist; I regret to state that he died very shortly after admission on the same day. The same remarks given in previous letters to you as to burial etc., refer to this soldier. Will you please convey the sympathies of myself & Staff to Mr. Bright's relatives in their sad bereavement.

Letter from:- J. Macconn,

Major C.A.M.C.

Commanding

No. 3 Canadian Stationary Hospital.

NOTE:- The 3rd Canadian Stationary Hospital is at Doullens and presumably Pte Bright is buried in the Military Cemetery there together with the other men who have died in that hospital.
