He was in A.Coy. I received a letter from Pte.Turnbull, A.Coy. 18th Battn. about a month ago, and he was then in same camp in England as Black, and I understand they are both returning to Australia shortly. He was a Scotch lad of about 24 or 25, of medium build, bright and clean shaven. He was wounded about the time in reference, but I did not see the casualty, and have not seen him since. He was batman to Lt.Bert, an Officer on Bde. Hqts., who is at present in France. The name of camp I cannot remember, except that it ends in - moon, but it is one of Weymouth camps.
