M. 8/8/15.

Witness knew a man in C Co, 16th Btn, by name Aarons. He came over with the 6th Rfts and was commonly called "Morrie". Witness saw Aarons on Sunday 8/8/15, but has not seen him since. This was at Pope's Ridge and on that day we made a demonstration against the Turks, and there were several casualties.

Informant states that "In the rush of 6th August trying for Hill 971 ~~XXXXX~~ I left Aarons and went with General Monash. Afterwards I ascertained from our two other chums that "Morrey" was not to be found anywhere and the Army Medical Corps and stretcher bearers could not answer to his description so we counted him as killed. I have just remembered that Doyle of 16th Batt, 4th Brigade now in Egypt would tell you everything about him." Informant was not an eye-witness.
