Dear Society:

If it is possible would you please be able to furnish me with the grave-number and place of grave of undermentioned soldier: Pte. Percival Beaglehole 56th Battalion, who is reported killed on the 16th of Aug. 1916 at Marquet Farm or Pozieres. He was born in Mount St. from where he is listed. But I suppose Mount comes under Adelaide Military District His parents have not up to date received satisfactory information regarding whereabouts of his grave and they are therefor still living in the hope of him being a prisoner of war and I have personally walked miles and miles around the place where his is supposed to have been killed, in the hope of finding his grave, but all in vain. He was my brother-in-law and I will be very pleased to receive any information concerning him.

Believe me I am Yrs.
Faithfully
