Private. Sandford, 12th. Field Ambulance, was killed by a shell at Millencourt. I saw the funeral cart & I know that he was buried at Harloy Cemetery. He went out to Egypt I believe in 1915 from Australia & came to France in June 1916. He had dark hair, clean-shaven, short about 5 foot 4, thick set, about 30.

Passchendaele by shell. I saw him killed just after the advance. We held the ground but did not see his grave. The men in my Company said he was buried.

At Ypres, he was killed by shell at once while in the trenches. He was quite close to me at the time. I knew him well, in same Coy. I don't know where buried.
