GRANT Pte.L.

He was alongside me in a shell hole about 12.15 a.m. on the 29th inst. His foot was blown off and I was wounded myself and unable to carry him. He had not been brought in as long as I was at the dressing station, i.e. about 7 a.m. I do not think it would have been possible to have brought him in by daylight. This was at Pozieres.

GRANT, L.S.J. ?

M/28th. July 1916.

He and I were wounded and in a shell hole together at Pozieres on 23th. July 1916. He was very badly wounded in the right thigh and could not be moved without a stretcher. I collected some water bottles and left them with him and when I was carried back to our trenches I showed the stretcher bearers where he was, but do not know if he was found. I bandaged him as well as I could, but the fracture was so bad the field-dressing was not much use; it was still bleeding. He was left 400 yards from our trenches and about 100 yards from the German trenches. We took the German trench about a week later.
