I knew Private Albert Green, an original 13th. Light Horse man & transferred to the 14th. Battalion in September 1917 at Havre. He was hit by a shell about May 29th. in billets about eight miles behind the line at Allanville. I was wounded by the same shell & went with him in the same Ambulance to No. 5. C.C.S. He was unconscious & died of wounds the same morning. He will be buried close at hand.

GREEN,
Albert 231.

"Died of Wounds 31.5.18."

He was admitted here on the 31.5.18. unconscious and died shortly after admission 8.30 a.m. He was very severely wounded in head, right hand, and left arm, from the first there was no hope of recovery. I should have written his friends but could obtain no address. It may comfort his relatives to know he was attended to by the Priest. he did not suffer any pain, he had every care and attention and everything was done for him.

He was buried in a British Cemetery at Crouy. Plot 2 Row, E Grave 6.

"3R-5-18"

On this day we were out of the line and in rest at Allonville, near Amiens 8 miles behind the line. A.Coy. was in a barn (Hennessey's Barns) and I was in it, being a S/B attached to the Coy. About 1-30 a.m. a shell hit the barn roof, bringing in the roof and the heavy timber supports, and killed 30 and wounded 90 of our boys. All those killed outright or who died there were buried in Allonville Cemetery, where a Cross was put up with all the names on it. This report covers all men killed on May 31st including in your book, Powell,(whose body I saw), Downey,(whose body I saw), and Green, Leight, Whitcombe, Reddish, (S/B), Smith and Madigan, whose names I recognise.

Green was wounded in billets while at Allenville. A shell came thro' the roof of the building and killed and wounded nearly all who were there, the casualties from this shell and another that followed immediately after numbered 160 men, for the whole building collapsed on those inside it. I do not know where Green died or his place of burial.
