2193 Private Clarence Frederick Dilger

37th Battalion

0920608P

37th Battn.
A.I.F.

DILGER.
C. 2195.

"Killed 12.10.18."

Dilger was killed outright, shot through the head, about 500 yds. from the hop over - about half an hour after we started for the stunt towards Passchendale. We had to retire and came back to about 100 yds in front of our hop over place. I cannot say anything about his burial, except that next day they went over the ground getting the killed and burying them. He was in my Lewis Gun team and right alongside me when he was killed.

K. October 12th, 1917.

I saw Dilger of my D.XIII., killed near Passchendaele in the daytime, October 12th, about 50 yards from me by a h.e. shell which hit him in the head and killed him instantly. We were advancing at the time and went on so I dont know anything about burial. Dilger was a tall chap, fair, about 23 years old, I dont know where from.

DILGER.
Clarence Frederick. 2193.

"Killed in Action" 12-10-17.

Dilger,C. 2193. was not in the 40th Battn , He was in the 37th Battn. He was originally in the Light Horse and was transferred to D.Coy 37th Battn. We were near the 37th Battn in Oct 1917 and I heard that C.Dilger had got killed and went across to enquire and heard about it from the 37th Battn lads. He was shot through the head by a bullet in the stunt Oct 12th, on K. Track I did not know about the burial, or if he was buried and I do not know names of the lads who told me.

The Dilger in the 40th battn, was a cousin, and his initials were either A.H. or H.A. and his number was 337. This Dilger 40th Battn was killed at Armentieres Feb 1917. I knew all the Dilgers weal, and we came from same district in Tasmania and were boys together.
