"KILLED IN ACTION. 12.8.18."

We were in the Rozieres stunt. Condron was shot by a sniper just at dusk and killed outright. I saw him after he was killed. He was buried, as far as I know, between Rozieres and Chauleas Junction, in a little cemetery there. I did not see it.

He was in "D" Company, and in my Platoon. He was about 19 years of age, and about 5'7" in height.

"Killed in Action 17.8.18."

I saw him hit by two H.G. bullets in the stomach, at Villers Brettoneaux. He was carried out to the dressing station and died there.
He was buried at the back of Villers Brettonneaux with a lot of other Australian's. I saw his grave and a cross was erected with his particulars thereon. Description very dark, came from, I believe Alexandra. Sydney.
