I didn't see Cpl Everitt,C.Coy, wounded in knee by piece of shell about halfway between Chipilly and Bray on morning of 22nd Aug during a hop-over soon after we left the tape. He was conscious for a little while. L/Cpl T. Cox helped to bind him up and he was taken back. I dont know where he was buried.

France from wounds received in action, he has requested me to obtain whatever information I could for him concerning the following:- If he was in the Hospital & where he died, nature of wounds, where buried, what engagement it was where he received his wounds, & how long after he was wounded he died

I have exhausted all the avenues of enquiry at my disposal & have elicited the following information:-
No 749 A/Cpl Everett. Reginald 33rd Battalion was wounded Shell wound left leg, fracture the 22.8.18 & admitted to the 61st Casualty Clg Stn France where he died on the 28.8.18. , I have also made arrangements to have two copies of the Photograph of his Grave forwarded to his brother.

I would be exstremely obliged to you if you could get any further information for me on his brothers behalf as you have ways & means of eliciting information from
