"Killed 6.5.17"

I did not see him hit but I saw him being carried out of the line soon after the casualty, which was at Bullecourt. He had been caught by a shell which blew one of his feet off. He was taken away to the dressing station where he died. I knew him well, he came from Western Australia. His brother Pte.Greene D.Coy. 11th Battn. who is still in France was there at the time of casualty and will be able to give full details of death and burial.

"Killed 6.5.17"

He was my brother. He was wounded at about mid-night on May 6th by a German bomb and was carried out at about 8.a.m. the next morning by 2 stretcher bearers of the 12th A.I.F. He died about 3 hours later and was buried at Moreuil. Bugler Hosen of the 3rd M.G.Coy. (formerly of the 11th A.I.F.) was with him when he was hit. I was away at the time and have gathered the above from several boys in the battalion including Hosen. I have written home several times about it to my mother Mrs.L.Greene, Watkins Rd., Claremont, W.Australia. My brother was in D.Coy.XVI His No. was 6501

He had a brother in the same Coy. & Platoon as himself who was with him when he was killed and has written home to his people. They come from Perth way. Both brothers were short and about 20 but F.A. was stout. He came with the 21st Rfts.of 11th Battn. I am sure of him.
