To the Red Cross London

Dear Sir

Reading in the Paper the other day the good work you are doing in London. I thought I would write and ask if you have Private Edward Ilgent his No 4882 10 Battalion. B Company. on your list he was taken Prisoner D. Germany 22 of August 1914. I would be very pleased if you know him to write and let me know then perhaps I could write to him. He is my Nephew. one of my sons have been missing since May the 3rd. Private E. J. McKonsie B Company. 10/18 Battalion. No. 4199. I would be so thankful if I could hear any thing about him I feel he only to pleased to send a little Money to you if you would kindly tell me which would be the best way to send it

I remain

Yours sincerely

(Mrs) M. J. Mc Donald
