7th Light Horse,
A.I.F.
11th Reinforcements.

GADEN.
Private S.C. 1480.

Gaden came from Sydney. I met him at Mahdi and was with him at Romani.

At Etmarler on the 6th August we were attacked by the Turks and were driving them back. We were mounted. Gaden was wounded and was taken back to the Clearing Station near the rail head at Romani.

He is buried at Etmarlar and I have a photograph of his grave and the grave of Rosenberg No.1678. I lent this photograph to a reporter of the Parramatta "Argus". He is to return them to me.
