Pte F.C. Hartley Died at this hospital 24-7-17. I find that both the M.O. who attended him and the sister in charge of the ward, have gone to France. The official report, however, is the following:-

"Pte Hartley died of Pleurisy with effusion and Empyema was buried on the 25-7-17 with full military honours in the Harefield Churchyard. A headstone has since been erected on the grave subscribed for by the patients and staff. Capt.Chaplain McGregor, who was the padre here at the time, wrote full particulars to his people. I am sorry I cannot give you a fuller account, but hope that this will be of some assistance to you.

Mrs. Stanley Addison,
1st Australian Auxiliary Hpl,
Harefield.

Dear Madam,

We should be most grateful if you could obtain details of the illness-death and burial of No 562 Pte. F.C. HARTLEY, 18th Battalion, A.I.F. - who died of empyema at Harefield on 24-7-17.

We wrote to the Matron on 10-8-18 but have received no reply and would therefore be glad to have any particulars that you could send us as we are enquiring on behalf of his relatives in Australia.

With apologies for troubling you.

Yours faithfully,

(Miss) AW
