Seeing a notice in a local paper that the "Territorial Service Gazette" has been the means of tracing missing soldiers, and not knowing the address of the T.S.G. could you please have the following particulars inserted in that paper:-

No 4178

Private F. H. Northey,

B Company,

22nd Battalion, (Victorian)

Australian Imperial Force was reported "wounded and missing 3rd May 1917" at Bullecourt France. Nothing further has been heard of him. If this could be done you would have the heartfelt thanks of his mother Evel Jane Northey.

Mrs. Edith Jane Nobby,
23, Dayer Street,
Clifton Hill,
Melbourne, Victoria,
Australia.

10th August, 1918.

Dear Madam,

In answer to your enquiry for:-

4178 Pte. F.H. Northey, 22nd Battalion, A.I.F.

We regret to inform you he is officially reported as "Killed in Action" on 3-5-17, having been previously reported "Wounded & Missing" on the same date.

We would suggest that the quickest method for you to obtain any news of him is through our office at:-

Colonial Mutual Chambers, 60, Market Street,
Melbourne.

with which we are in constant communication by cable and letter, and to which all the information we have been able to obtain has been sent. Owing to the months that have elapsed since his casualty occurred we regret that we are obliged to close our enquiries, but should any further details be obtained they will be forwarded to the above office.

Assuring you of our deepest sympathy in your loss.
Yours faithfully,

(MISS)
