JOHNSON, Private
E.J. No. 6540

"Killed in action 31/8/18"

I ascertained from enquiries made by me that the above soldier was killed instantly by machine gun fire in the Mont St. Quentin stunt, and was buried at Mont St. Quentin west of the main road near the mouth of the big dug-out. I have seen his grave - a cross is erected. The map reference of the grave is 62C. N.W. I.9.A. 30. 10.
