(M. 29/8/16.)

Informant states:" I know that on Aug.20th.in the attack on Hill 60, Gallipoli, above man went out and did-not turn up in the trench we-took & which formed our furthest out front.

There was a big scrub fire caused by shells over the ground that afternoon and evening and a lot of men were burnt there.

McColl was includedin the Western Mail Souvenir War Supp't Christmas,1915,in the list of killed in action,and I believe he is-dead. He was in my Squadron."

(Informant showed visitor paper referred to.)
