K. May 7th 1917.

This was at Bullecourt. He was killed but I do not remember details. C.S.M. Cartwright B. Coy. could give information about him. I rather think he had a cross made. Irving was 5 ft 8 or 9, 25 years of age, heavily built, 12 stone, fair, good looking and well educated; school master? Lt Long II battalion D. would be able to give full particulars he was a friend of his and in D. XV

"Killed 7.5.17"

I saw Irving killed, being shot through the head by a sniper and killed outright at Bullecourt. I was not present but he was buried by the troops at night on the field. I don't think grave was marked.
