Gray and Haslam were in IV platoon A.Co. and Horne was in I platoon, A.Co. I saw all three in the German trench we got into at Fleurbaix on July 19th. They were there with me digging in, in the dummy trench we took byond the German first line, having got through the charge alright. We had to retire from this position next day: the Germans outflanked us and took a number of prisoners. There is quite a fair chance that all three are prisoners.

Yours of 19th Feb, to hand to-night, many thanks for same It was ~~was~~ regarding my pay which does not matter now. Well, it is time I thanked you for all your kindness to me during my dose as you say. By jove you must be a busy young person, with so many boys ~~kx~~ on your hands, oh I mean prisoners. I say, do you know what becomes of the parcels sent from home, I have had a lot sent as I wrote some pitiful letters home before your goodness came to the rescue. In conclusion ~~Many~~many thanks,

From your ever grateful, Bert Horne,
