Madam,

Your letter addressed 11 O.C. 5 Southampton St.
Strand. London. has been handed to us. It is part of our work as a Red Cross organisation ~~to~~ to find out all we can about our wounded & missing heroes.

It is no time since this mail came in & do more than assure you that we will do all in our power to obtain news for you.
Any ~~of which~~ we may be sent to you.

Through our Office in Perth at the National - Mutual Building St George's Terrace, Perth.
We are sending your letter to them - as they may perhaps be able to get news of you from returned Soldiers.
There is unfortunately no trace of your son's name on the list of our Prisoners in Turkey. We have never heard of any having been taken to Germany from there. With sincere sympathy in your great anxiety & sorrow.
A sorrow shared by so many in this land, for which these have gave their lives.
