Secretary:

In answer to your letter received this morning concerning information about Capt. P.J. Keegan I happened to be in another unit when he was killed & was under the idea that he died crossing the channel.

One of the dispatch riders reported to Divisional Artillery H.Q. (my last unit) that he had died of wounds

I myself at present am in this unit

B Echelon
2nd D.A.C. H.Q.
2nd Aust Div.

My last unit was D.A.H.Q.

I will be very thankful to you if you should let me know the reason is to let this people know they are very anxious about him.

Sincerely hoping I am not causing you much trouble.

I Remain
Yours
P. J. Doherty

August 9.17.

Sir.

I wish to know if you could give me any information as to the death & burial of a Lieutenant H.J. Hoste of the 17th Battery
He was wounded on or about the middle of May this year.
He died of wounds crossing on the Hospital ship.
As I was this batman for 14 months I should like to know where he was buried & the number of his grave if it is possible.
As I am in England I was invalided over here with French Fever.
Hoping to hear

the pleasure of hearing from you soon.

Yours truly
H. J. W Oberly.

P.S. My address is on the front page.
