Enquiry Bureau.

Dear Mrs Deakin

I would be very pleased if you could give me any information about my Brother Pte. H.
Meckenburg No 1575. 26 Batt. I had word from a chap that knew me telling me he died on the 15th of July on Hospital from Eczema. I have not been informed by the Secretary so far but I may get word yet.
What I would like to no is were he was buried if the data is. If you can find that out for me I would be able to get a photo of his grave which I would like to have & also one to send home as my people would be very pleased to have. I would not trouble you if I could get have over there but as you no have it not very handy to get from Ire. I may get it after a while when my turn comes. If you can give me this information I will be very much obliged.

Yours Faithfully
Frank Meckenburg
