"Died of Wounds 13-10-17"

Robb was a Lewis Gnr., and was hit by a sniper at Passchendaele. I enquired and was told of this at the time. He comes from the same place, Collie, Cardiff, W.Australia, as I do, but I cannot give any reference. I don't remember whether he was taken back and can't give the nature of his wounds.

"I saw Pte. Jim Robb (48.C.XI.L.C.) after he had been wounded, on Oct. 12th on the Ypres Houlers Railway Line, during the attack. Pte. Yates, (48.C. XI) the head of the L.C. team, bandaged him up, and he was left sitting at the door of the dug-out. I saw him there at two o'clock in the afternoon. I was told that he attempted to get out, and had died. The Germans came right over that part later."
