He was called 'Torry'. He was tall, thin, and dark. He was killed at the Battery position. I saw his body at the wagon lines near Dickbusch. He was buried in the cemetery at Dickbusch with other men killed the same time. I was working in the cook house at the time. I saw the funeral party but did not go to the funeral.

I know him pretty well. I heard he was killed on the 5th Octr at Ypres. I saw his grave on the 10th November in Dickebusch Military Cemetery, and put a cross on it with his name etc. The grave must have been registered by the Battery office.

SHAW,
T.C. 2677

"Died of Wounds 4.10.17."

I saw him riding on the road near Messines on the 7th Dec/17.
He was at the time batman to an officer. He was formerly batman to Lieut McMullins. I knew him well. He used to be in the same subsection with me in the 50th Btty.

50th. Battery. A.F. Artillery.

Shaw. T.C. No. 2677.

K. Oct. 4/17. Det. D./B.

I saw him killed by a shell at the battery position at West Hoek.
I saw him buried at Plermarton Cemetery. A Padre officiated at the grave.
I know they were making the cross, but I did not see it erected.
I only knew him in the battery, and he came from Melbourne.

"Killed 4.10.17"

Bdr. Cousins. L. 50th Bty. with Battery 10 days ago, was present on the occasions when Rees and Shaw were killed. He told me they were killed - others had also told me. The Battery position was then about Polygon Wood. He could tell of burial. I believe it was at a cemetery near Dickebusch.
