A.I.F. 46 MANNION, P.A. 1829.

M. April 11th 1917.

There was a Mannion with initials P.A. we called him Paddy - who came over with me in the 3rd Reinforcements of 46th. His number would be within 100 or 200 of mine. He was an old soldier with I think he said 18 years service. If this is the right man, and I don't think there was any other Mannion in the Battn., he is with the Battn now. I saw him pretty well every day from April 15th till June 1st when I came down. He ws a bit of a "lad", but a good fellow at bottom.
