2nd Battn:

Moore, J.L. 7503.

D/W. 22/5/18.

We were on the same Company (A) and same platoon (No: 2). We were in the support line at Strazelle on the 21st of May when a shell burst about 2 yards away blowing off Moore's right leg from just below the knee and wounding me. We were taken together to the C.C.S. at Eblingham, he was conscious but made no remark. Moore was buried in the cemetery at Eblingham but I did not see the grave.
