ditto K. 28th July 1916. Meade D. No.404.

They were both B. Company and I was on the same fatigue party with them. We were a ration party and were coming back in the early morning through a sap. It was light. The last I saw of them was just after we delivered the rations; to, I think, the 19th Battalion. It was in Bozieres Wood the other side of "Gibralter". It was the early morning of the 29th.
