82 WOODSTOCK ROAD,
OXFORD.

May 1 - add some information to enclosed particulars as to our nephew, Gilbert Murray?
He was officially announced wounded some weeks ago but the Australian authorities reported that our K.C. they suffered the wound was too slight for admission to hospital, as they had healed - nothing more. I never could see why they has the inference especially as his letter, dated two days ago, the relative in London who is entitled as next of kin & his parents at Sydney have admitted that he was married & missing - his father was cables for news.

We have this morning made enquiries from your Officials, Major & Lieut. J. Wain - a Mr. Ince, particulars, but nothing conclusive -

If you have any information you can give me, I find I am likely to be able to see some of officers in London who can throw any light I could ever get at me.

I knew Sarge. R. Jones No. 2001 of the 9th Batty. he came from Hobart and was a Clerk in the Government. He was killed at the gun pits in front of Eilobeke about the 26th Sept 1917, and buried in the Military Cemetery at Roningsholst. There is a cross on the grave made by our Father Henry. I was at the funeral.
