T. Munton 292

Saw him in the trench away to the left of Anzac about 3 weeks after landing. This just before making a charge against Turkish trenches. Did not take the trench and had to retire. When they got back he was missing when Mr. Anderson called the roll-call. Mates told witness that they had seen him killed. Only stayed that night in the trench. Not much chance of being brought in. About 5 ft 6, dark, no moustache, then to grow one and shave it off. Enlisted in Sydney but came from Melbourne. His parents lived in England.

In A Coy, 5 ft 10, stoutish, dark, 24, single.
When near Hill 971 a charge was made, but he was hit before getting beyond the parapet. Witness saw him fall back into the trench apparently lifeless.
The company never returned to this trench, so witness heard nothing more of him.
