 The Secretary,
 The Australian Red Cross Comm.
 54 Victoria St, London.

Dear Madam,
 On the night of 11/12, 1916, this year our Battalion was in action, and a brother of mine, No. 4866, Mr. A. L. Moore, was reported missing. Naturally I am very anxious to find what became of him. A friend of mine referred me to you.

2/
so I'd be very much obliged to you if you could give me any information regarding him that you might be in possession of.

Thanking you in anticipation,

I am,

Yours sincerely,

b b Moore
