Moir. H. S. 4321.

D/S. September. 29/1917. Dets. D/B.

He was in B. Coy. I think. I knew him slightly; he was medium height, darkish, slight moustache, about 38. On the 20th. September we were holding the line near Ypres. I saw Moir carried through on a Stretcher & taken into the D/Station which was close by. I heard he died at the D/Station. There was a Cemetery also to the D/Station.

Harold. Sydney. 4321.

"Died of Wounds" 29-9-17.

He belonged to the 32nd A.I.F. and was in A.Co.IV and was killed at Passchendaele with that battalion. His number was four thousand three hundred and something, and I am quite sure that he was in the 32nd and not the 50th Battn.A.I.F. He came from S.Australia, was fair, and about 24 years old. His initials were H.S.

During an action in Polygon Wood he was killed by a shell. There were four in the one post. I/Cpl. Oliver, A Co. 2 Pl. saw him killed. Moir was buried in a C.C.S. Cemetery near Poperinghe and a cross marks the grave. Pte. Pullbrook, A Co. 2 Pl. was wounded at the same time and can give full details. Moir came from Childers St., North Adelaide, S. Australia where he was a carpenter.
