"Died of Wounds 24.9.17."

He was of D. Coy. XVI Platoon. At foot of ridge at Zonnebeke about 5.30 in morning just before we attacked on 4th Oct. enemy had put over a barrage. Nichol Pte. G. Caldwell 6405, Pte. J. Love and another, all Scotchmen, and all great mates were all together and killed by shell or shells. I never saw him after he was killed, was about 20 yds. away. We all came over in Demosthenes, in same reinforcement. Knew him as Scottie, would be buried at same spot as others.

Died of Wounds 23.9.17.

I saw him wounded in the Railway Line, Bulle-court and he died two days after. I was present at his burial in the open just outside Albert. A Chaplain buried him, but I forget his name.

He came from Tawcomba: we were in the same Coy. for about six months. He was of dark complexion.

D/W. Sept. 25rd.1917. Det. D/B.

He came over in the 18th to 25th reinforcement with me from Brisbane. We left Sydney on the 24th December,1916.
He was in A.Co. I saw him in a Dressing Station on the Menin Road near Glencorse Wood; it was right on the road; a light railway passed close by. He was wounded, and was waiting for the Ambulance to take him away. I gave him a drink. Asked him if he was bad; he ~~did~~ said he did not feel too well. He was not anxious to talk. I think the wounds was in his leg. He did not seem to be suffering very much.
