I saw both Walker's legs blown off at the Anzac landing by a shell. This occurred on the ridge above Pest Gully. He came up through Shrapnel Gully to this point. He must have died as the result of his injuries, which were fearful. He was a short fellow, a "hard deer." We know him as "Wakker" Walker.

I saw Ernie Walker of Coolgardie. W.A. in hospital at Valetta Malta, the last week in May 1915 suffering from gun shot wound in left foot. He expected to go to England for hospital treatment some time in June 1915. Last I saw of him.
