4th Australian Imperial Force — Hooper, Lieut. C.W.

(M. April, 15, 1917).

" I am almost certain that Lieut. Hooper (4 art. D Coy) is all right, and with his battalion. I know that he was reported missing about 15th or 17th April, when the Germans came over and took one of our posts. We all thought he was there, and for a whole day, we thought he was a prisoner. Then Sgt. McGuire (4 C) told me that it was a mistake, and that he was not out at the Post after all. "

Eye Witness - No. Sgt. McGuire (4. C) told him.

Description - Tall, young, had been a Private. Joined 3rd last Nov. at Belville Wood.
