Informant states that at 3.45 a.m. on April 15th, the Germans came over and surrounded No.3 Section, to which Padget belonged. All but about 7 men of the Section were captured together with 3 Machine Guns. Informant was in No.4 Section, some 300 yards away, and witnessed the occurrence. He also states that Lt. Martin was one of those who escaped and who would be able to give further information.

I was Sgt. of No.3 Section, 21st Coy. The Germans came over in great strength and made a surprise raid upon our trench about 4 a.m. We were then entrenched at Lagnicourt. They caught most of our section, No.3, when they were asleep in their dug out. I myself had just got up and was making for my gun when they came over, and by good luck and thanks to the darkness, escaped being taken. Only one officer, six men and myself escaped. Padget was one of those taken. He was an officer's batman.
