ROBERTSON
K. 169
(Kenneth)

At Passchendaele he had his leg blown off about the knee. I helped to carry him out on stretcher and he died on the way before we got to Dressing Station. I took a Razor out with ~~brush~~ comb on it and his paybook which I handed to Head Quarters of 34th Battn. We took him to Dressing Station, but I do not know where buried.

Pte R. 169.

Killed in Action 12.10.17.

Sailed from Australia 15.16. on the same boat as myself the Hororata. I was not with my Company at the time but was informed by his mates that after we had advanced at Paschendale we were compelled to retire when Robertson was discovered to be missing and it was thought by all that he had been taken prisoner. No definite information could be obtained from the Company. He came from the same town as myself Angledool. I knew him very well.
