ROWAN
Lieut. A.P.

Trumpeter Innes, 422, 10th A.L.H., states that Lt Rowan was promoted Captain and led the charge of August 6th. He says that Sgt Radford of the same Regiment who was in the palace Hospital about Aug. 17th, and may still be there, told him that he had seen Rowan dead on the beach.

Sgt Throssell, wounded, in Luna Park Hospital, and Cpl L. Oliver, wounded, in Atelier Hospital, both of the 10th A.I.H. state that there was no officer of that name in the 10th A.I.H. There was, however, a Lieut A.P. Rowan, who was slightly wounded in the head in June. He was subsequently promoted captain and was killed in action, at Walker's Ridge, Gaba Tepe, on August 7th. Both witnesses were wounded in the same engagement. Sgt Throssell saw capt Rowan die whilst being attended to by Cpl Moore of the same Regt. Cpl Oliver did not see Capt Rowan die but said his death was well known throughout the regiment.

My opinion is that both witnesses are credible.
